

Course Dates

January 2007	8 - 10
February 2007	19 - 21
March 2007	12 - 14
April 2007	16 - 18
May 2007	14 - 16
June 2007	4 - 6
July 2007	16 - 18
August 2007	13 - 15
September 2007	17 - 19
October 2007	8 - 10
November 2007	19 - 21
December 2007	10 - 12
January 2008	21 - 23
February 2008	25 - 27
March 2008	10 - 12

Foundation Intruder Alarms

This excellent blend of classroom theory and hands-on practical training will provide you with the fundamental skills to install, commission and maintain 'state of the art' alarm systems. The course also explains the requirements and implications of new legislation.

Course Content

- BSEN Standards, Inspectorates and Governing Bodies
- Measuring current, voltage and end of line resistance
- Basic Ohms Law and resistor colour coding
- Using appropriate test equipment
- Practical wiring projects
- Detectors
- Control panels and warning devices
- System design and planning
- Awareness of grading alarm systems
- Environmental considerations
- Audio and video verification
- Installation techniques
- Cost, materials and labour
- Maintenance agreements
- Health and Safety

Duration and Cost

Tavcom Certificate

3 days £ 585.00 + VAT

BTEC Advanced Award

3 days £ 660.00 + VAT

BTEC
Advanced
Award
OPTION
(Level 3)

Fact File

Who should attend

The course is open to all – from those wishing to enter the electronics division of the security industry to installation engineers, consultants and sales personnel.

How you will benefit

The course will give you the confidence and ability to install and maintain intruder alarms. An optional BTEC qualification is available.

“A good venue and a great crowd of people. The tutor was out of this world ...”

Genesis Integrated Systems delegate